II. RELEVANT STATUTE: 11 CFR §400.32(b)
2 U.S.C. §441a-1(a)(3)(B)

III. BACKGROUND:

Excessive, Prohibited and Other Impermissible Contributions or Transfers
(Acceptance of Increased Limit Contributions After an Election)

The Hynes for Senate Committee (“the Committee”) has received, to date, excessive contributions totaling $110,320.20 for the 2004 Primary Election. These excessive contributions were received from eighty-eight (88) individuals and were made after the Committee had become eligible to receive contributions with increased limits allowable under the provisions of the “Millionaires’ Amendment”. However, the contributions in question were received after the date of the 2004 Primary Election (March 16, 2004), which is not permissible. Additionally, the contributions in question were not refunded, redesignated, or reattributed within sixty (60) days from the date of receipt, nor within sixty (60) days from the date of the initial notice sent to the Committee by the Reports Analysis Division (RAD) (Attachment 2).

On February 12, 2003, the Committee filed a FEC Form 1 (Statement of Organization (Image 23020121005). The Committee was immediately eligible to receive increased 2004 Primary Election individual contribution limits of $6,000.00¹.

¹ On January 22, 2003, the principle campaign committee (PCC) of the opposing candidate (Marson Blair Hull) filed an FEC Form 10 with the Secretary of the Senate stating Mr. Hull had made expenditures from

On May 13, 2003, the Committee filed via fax a 24-Hour Notice of Opposition Personal Funds Amount (FORM 11). The form identified the opposing candidate as Marson Blair Hull and listed the Opposition Personal Funds Amount (OPFA) as $5,998,069.64 for the Primary Election (Image 23038080764). At this time, the Committee's individual 2004 Primary Election contribution limits were raised to the maximum $12,000.00².

On July 15, 2004, the Committee filed the 2004 July Quarterly Report covering the period from April 1, 2004 through June 30, 2004 (Image 24020543092). The report disclosed the receipt of contributions (with increased limits in conjunction with the Millionaires' Amendment) after the 2004 Primary Election that were designated to the 2004 Primary Election. The portion of these contributions in excess of the $2,000.00 allowable individual contribution limit totaled $71,250.00 (Attachment 3).

On October 15, 2004, the Committee filed the 2004 October Quarterly Report covering the period from July 1, 2004 through September 31, 2004 (Image 24020901326). The report disclosed the receipt of contributions (with increased limits in conjunction with the Millionaires' Amendment) after the 2004 Primary Election that were designated to the 2004 Primary Election. The portion of these contributions in excess of the $2,000.00 individual contribution limit totaled $9,750.00 (Attachment 4).

On November 2, 2004, the Reports Analysis Division (RAD) sent the Committee a Request for Additional Information (RFAI) referencing the 2004 July Quarterly Report. The RFAI questioned, among other matters, the Committee's receipt of excessive contributions and provided guidance on corrective action to be taken (Image 24038611072).

On December 1, 2004, the Committee filed two Amended 2004 July Quarterly Reports. One filing was an Amended 2004 July Quarterly Report covering the period from April 1, 2004 through June 30, 2004. The amendment did not disclose any changes or corrective action to excessive contributions in question (Image 24021070017). The other amended filing was a detailed response to the November 2, 2004 RFAI. Specifically, the Committee's legal counsel, Michael K. Forde, wrote "Although some contributions accepted under the Millionaire's Amendment were received subsequent to the primary election, the Campaign had net debts outstanding at the end of the primary period". He further highlighted that the Committee was advised by "its own attorneys" and "outside attorneys" that "it was and is permissible to continue to raise funds under the Millionaire's Amendment limits for debt retirement so long as the amount raised does not otherwise cause the candidate to become ineligible to raise funds under the amendment, i.e., reaching the 110% threshold for opposition personal funds..." Mr. Forde also emphasized that "[i]t would make no sense to deny a candidate the ability to raise personal funds for the 2004 Primary Election that exceeded two times the senate threshold amount (Image 23020020748).

² The opposing candidate's PCC subsequently filed six (6) more FEC Form 10's with the Commission prior to the 2004 Primary Election. However, the Committee's increased individual contribution limit for the 2004 Primary Election remained at $12,000.

contributions, under the increased limits, to cover expenses incurred during the period in which he was still running against a candidate using personal funds." Finally, he indicated that the Committee's "reading is further consistent with the Commission's administration of the primary matching fund program which allows presidential candidates to continue to raise matchable contributions after the date of ineligibility if the candidate has net debts outstanding." (Image 240210770017)

On December 2, 2004, the Committee filed another Amended 2004 July Quarterly Report covering the period from April 1, 2004 through June 30, 2004. This amendment did not disclose any changes or corrective action to the excessive contributions in question and included the same cover letter that had previously been provided with the Amended 2004 July Quarterly Report on December 1, 2004 (Image 24021061490).

On January 31, 2005, the Committee filed an Amended 2004 October Quarterly Report covering the period from July 1, 2004 through September 31, 2004. This amendment did not disclose any changes or corrective action to the excessive contributions in question (Image 25020080213).

Also on January 31, 2005, the Committee filed the 2004 Year End Report covering the period from October 1, 2004 through December 31, 2004 (Image 25020072199). The report disclosed the receipt of contributions (with increased limits in conjunction with the Millionaires' Amendment) after the 2004 Primary Election that were designated to the 2004 Primary Election. The portion of these contributions in excess of the $2,000.00 individual contribution limit totaled $14,980.00 (attachment 4).

On March 15, 2005, RAD sent the Committee a RFAI referencing the Amended 2004 October Quarterly Report, dated January 31, 2005. The RFAI questioned, among other matters, the Committee's receipt of excessive contributions and provided guidance on corrective action to be taken (Image 25038752988).

On April 13, 2005, the Committee filed another Amended 2004 October Quarterly Report covering the period from July 1, 2004 through September 31, 2004. This amendment did not disclose any changes or corrective action to the excessive contributions in question. A cover letter included with the report highlighted the same response regarding the excessive contributions that had been included in the Amended July Quarterly Report filed on December 1, 2004 (Image 25020123108).

On April 15, 2005, the Committee filed the 2005 April Quarterly Report covering the period from January 1, 2005 through March 31, 2005 (Image 25020160862). The report disclosed the receipt of contributions (with increased limits in conjunction with the Millionaires' Amendment) after the 2004 Primary Election that were designated to the 2004 Primary Election. The portion of these contributions in excess of the $2,000.00 individual contribution limit totaled $10,750.00 (attachment 5).

On May 24, 2005, RAD sent the Committee a RFAI referencing the 2004 Year End Report. The RFAI questioned, among other matters, the Committee's receipt of excessive contributions and provided guidance on corrective action to be taken³ (Image 25038814250).

On June 22, 2005, the Committee filed an Amended 2004 Year End Report covering the period from October 1, 2004 through December 31, 2004 (Image 25020230916). The amendment did not disclose any changes or corrective action to the excessive contributions in question. The cover letter included the same response regarding the excessive contributions that had been included in the Amended July Quarterly Report filed on December 1, 2004.

On July 7, 2005, RAD sent the Committee a RFAI referencing the 2005 April Quarterly Report. The RFAI questioned the Committee's receipt of excessive contributions and provided guidance on corrective action to be taken (Image 25038832341).

On August 5, 2005, the Committee filed an Amended 2005 April Quarterly Report covering the period from January 1, 2005 through March 31, 2005 (Image 25020343023). This amendment did not disclose any changes or corrective action to the excessive contributions in question. The cover letter included the same response regarding the excessive contributions that had been included in the Amended July Quarterly Report filed on December 1, 2004.

On October 12, 2005, the Committee filed the 2005 October Quarterly Report covering the period from July 1, 2005 through September 31, 2005 (Image 25020490337). The report disclosed the receipt of contributions (with increased limits in conjunction with the Millionaires' Amendment) after the 2004 Primary Election that were designated to the 2004 Primary Election. The portion of these contributions in excess of the $2,000.00 individual contribution limit totaled $3,590.20.

On October 20, 2005, the Committee filed an Amended 2005 October Quarterly Report covering the period from July 1, 2005 through September 31, 2005 (Image 25020502508). This amendment did not disclose any changes or corrective action to the excessive contributions in question. Please note the amendment did, however, provide a signed Summary Page, which had been missing from the original report.

On December 13, 2005, RAD sent the Committee a RFAI referencing the 2005 October Quarterly Report (Image 25038933522). The RFAI questioned the Committee's receipt of excessive contributions and provided guidance on corrective action to be taken⁴.

On January 11, 2006, the Committee filed two Amended 2005 October Quarterly Reports covering the period from July 1, 2005 through September 30, 2005 (Image 26020010790 and 26020011701). These amendments did not disclose any changes or corrective action to the excessive contributions in question. The cover letter included the same response, regarding excessive contributions, which had been included in the Amended July Quarterly Report filed on December 1, 2004.

To date, no further communication has been received from the Committee regarding this matter.
